

	Sessions	Introduced by
9.30	Registration and coffee
10.00	Welcome to the British Library and introduction	Dr Kristian Jensen, Head of Arts and Humanities, British Library and Janet Zmroczek, Head of European Studies, British Library.
10.05	Digital innovation and access to Europe's heritage online: the strategy of Europeana.eu www.europeana.eu	Jonathan Purday Europeana
10.20	Judaica Europeana: library, archive and museum collections online from Europe and beyond www.judaica-europeana.eu	Lena Stanley-Clamp Judaica Europeana Project Manager
10.35	Collaborative research online: the knowledge management pilot project on Haskala, the Jewish Enlightenment database	Rachel Heuberger Frankfurt University Library
11.00	Integrating user environments and data liquidity to improve the research experience	Chris Clark British Library
11.20	Q&A
11.30	Coffee break
12.00	Overview of open-source tools for research	Sheila Anderson, Centre for e-research, King's College London
12.45	Facilitating Data Mining: Tagging the Digitized Montefiore Testimonials	Francois Guesnet University College London
13.00	Q & A
13.30	Lunch
14.30	Internet resources for historical research: Jewish content in a broader context	Gerben Zaagsma, Huygens Institute for Dutch History, The Hague
15.10	Future perspectives What future directions are recommended, how do we develop ideas and look for sources of funding? Discussion	Simon Tanner, King's College London
15.45	A Judaica Europeana virtual exhibition: The Yiddish Theatre in London	Elizabeth Selby, Jewish Museum London
16.00	TEA AND END OF WORKSHOP	